

Sarah Ganoë

Sarah Ganoë was born and raised in Las Vegas, NV. She moved to southeast Idaho in 2012 to attend Brigham Young University-Idaho where she earned her BA in Political Science. She now works at Sugar-Salem High School as a Near Peer Mentor, striving every day to help students see their full potential and understand the importance of education after high school.

Lori Lodge

Lori Lodge is a native Idahoan and is a current college and career counselor. She previously spent 11 years at Timberline High School in Boise as a counselor in the College and Career Center.

Currently she is working as an adjunct instructor at Boise State University in the Counseling Education Department. Lori also does private counseling in Boise.

Fred Woolley

Fred Woolley is the current counselor at Sugar-Salem High School. Fred and Sugar-Salem have participated in the College Access Challenge Grant through the State Board of Education. Last year 95% of their seniors applied to college, their highest yet.

